Reading Level Information

The book series and authors listed above provide readers with books at various levels. This provides options for children to read independently and/or with an adult or friend. To find more books geared towards your child's independent reading level, check out the Scholastic Book Wizard. At the end of first grade, children are typically reading at a DRA level of 16-18, which is equivalent to a Guided Reading level of letter I/J. Use this as a guide to find great books and inspire a love of reading in your child!
